On January 31, 2005 PIERRE DUVON BOYD, black male, 2702 Brandes Street Apartment 2 Erie, Pennsylvania (PA) 16503 date of birth 08/17/82. PA operator license number (OLN) 26398258, was interviewed at the PA Office of Probation and Parole on 221 East 18th Street Erie, PA at approximately 10:24 AM by Trooper ERIC WAGNER of the PA State Police. Trooper WAGNER, knowing that BOYD was advised of his constitutional safeguards in writing on January 28, 2005, verbally advised BOYD of his Miranda warnings. BOYD was again advised of the nature of the interview and the identity of Trooper WAGNER.

Trooper WAGNER was advised by DAVID H. DIVELL, BOYD's parole officer, that the Office of Probation and Parole nearly revoked BOYD's parole. However, they were willing to avoid revoking BOYD at this time provided he comply with more stringent guidelines.

BOYD stated that HOLLINGSWORTH was receiving 1/4 to 1 kilogram of crack cocaine at a time. HOLLINGSWORTH was getting the crack cocaine from the Cleveland, Ohio (OH) area. BOYD thought that the name of the source was DUANE HOOD. According to BOYD, a black female would drive the crack cocaine from Cleveland to Erie. The female drives a red Chevrolet Cavalier, possibly late 1990s or early 2000s model, with OH registration. BOYD was with HOLLINGSWORTH on two occasions when he received the crack cocaine from the female. Both times HOLLINGSWORTH met the female at the front motel across from the exit 7 truck stop. BOYD thought it was the SUPER 8 Motel in Summit Township. BOYD witnessed the transaction occur in the parking lot and the female would then rent the room for the night.

HOLLINGSWORTH would occasionally use BOYD's place to break the cocaine down. If HOLLINGSWORTH could not find another place, he would call BOYD and see about using BOYD's place. The cocaine was already made into crack cocaine when HOLLINGSWORTH took possession of it. BOYD stated that he personally viewed approximately 1/2 kilogram of crack cocaine. If HOLLINGSWORTH would acquire 18 ounces of crack (1/2 kilogram) BOYD would receive two ounces for allowing HOLLINGSWORTH to use his place.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 02/01/2005

On Friday, January 28th, while in the process of serving a Federal search warrant at 2702 Brandes Street., Erie, Pennsylvania, Cpl. ROBERT TOSKI of the Pennsylvania State Police observed a tan Nissan sedan pull to the south side of the street, on East 27th, in front of the residence. The passenger was PIERRE BOYD. The vehicle was driven by BRENDA HORNE. After seeing Cpl. TOSKI'S badge, BOYD motioned to HORNE to drive away. The vehicle started to pull away and then stopped at the intersection of East 27th and Brandes. Cpl. TOSKI walked up to BOYD and asked to speak to him, at which time BOYD exited the vehicle. BOYD was patted down for weapons, advised that he was not under arrest, and that a search warrant was being served on the apartment he shared with HORNE. HORNE exited the vehicle and was advised of the same. BOYD was then directed to Det. Sgt. JEFF GREENE of the Erie Police Department who spoke to BOYD in the rear porch area of the residence. BOYD agreed to cooperate and went upstairs to the second floor apartment.

Once inside he directed officers to the location of approximately one ounce of crack and a Glock .40 caliber pistol which were in the west bedroom.

Cpl. TOSKI and Tpr. WAGNER then proceeded to interview BOYD in the living room after he signed a Rights Waiver at 6:55 PM. BOYD admitted that the crack inside the apartment was his. He stated that his source was "G" or GLEN HOLLINGSWORTH. BOYD stated that HOLLINGSWORTH'S source is a black male named HOOD from Cleveland. HOOD'S first name is possibly DEWAYNE.

BOYD added that he has known HOLLINGSWORTH for a long time and that they grew up together. BOYD has been receiving crack from HLLINGSWORTH for about 6 months. HOLLINGSWORTH would give BOYD 1-2 ounces of crack at a time in exchange for the use of BOYD'S apartment at 2702 Brandes. HOLLINGSWORTH would use the apartment to "break down" his shipment of crack cocaine into smaller quantities. It was weighed out on a scale that was in the apartment and bagged in plastic baggies. BOYD stated that the cocaine was already in crack form and was cooked in Cleveland. HOLLINGSWORTH would bring up to a kilo at a time to the apartment. BOYD stated that he suspected that HOLLINGSWORTH possibly brought in more than a kilo, but broke it down at other locations. The crack that HOLLINGSWORTH received from Cleveland was brought to Erie by a black female in a red four door Chevrolet Cavalier. BOYD did not know the female's name. BOYD stated that HOLLINGSWORTH met this female in different locations each time. BOYD stated that when HOLLINGSWORTH brought the crack to the apartment it was usually in a clothing bag or box.

BOYD stated that HOLLINGSWORTH had brought just under a kilo of crack to the apartment on either Tuesday (01/25/05) or Wednesday (01/26/05) prior to the service of the search warrant on Friday, 01/28/05. The ounce recovered was BOYD'S payment for the use of the apartment. BOYD also stated that the Glock .40 caliber pistol was not his but HOLLINGSWORTH'S, and that he did not know where it was obtained.

BOYD stated that HOLLINGSWORTH lives at different addresses including his grandmother's in the 600 block of East 19th St., and also at a female named RAYRAY'S which is the corner house at the intersection of Buffalo RD., and Pear St. HOLLINGSWORTH'S cell number is 746-8200.

BOYD also advised that he (BOYD) supplied KEEVON JOHNSON with crack cocaine that he had received from HOLLINGSWORTH.

BOYD stated that HOLLINGSWORTH supplied the individuals crack cocaine:

- (1) WILFREDO, LNU, a Hispanic male that lives on the east side of Erie.
- (2) DEVOE PICKERING who received 8-16 ounces that were fronted to him by HOLLINGSWORTH.
